Student Work Sample Analysis

Directions: Use the table below to record patterns in learning/misconceptions you in the student work samples you brought to the session.. As you analyze each student work sample, be sure to provide individual written feedback that helps guide your students' learning . After analyzing the work samples, we will share our findings with our table partners.

What are the skills/understandings demonstrated by this set of student work samples? Ex: (Skill) Students can use the distributive property to solve an algebraic equation. Ex: (Understanding) Students understand how character development contributes to the overall theme of a literary text.
Skill(s):		Understanding(s):
Error Type/Evidence of Misconception	# of samples	Skill Type/Evidence of Understanding	# of samples
Total # of samples		Total # of samples
Next Steps:			